

2024 GENERAL ELECTION
November 5, 2024. Polls open 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Hey y'all!

As you navigate through this pivotal time in our nation's history, we urge you to exercise your right to vote. Your voice matters, and your participation in the electoral process is crucial for shaping the future of our communities, our country, and our world.

Your vote will directly impact your community—affecting local schools, public safety, healthcare access, and so much more. It's not just about national issues; it's about the everyday realities we face right here at home.

In this nonpartisan voter guide, we aim to provide you with unbiased information about candidates and issues so that you can make informed decisions at the polls. All candidates' responses have been retrieved from their campaign websites and/or public statements. However, due to limited space, this voter guide only includes candidates from the 2 major parties; Republican and Democrat. There are additional elections for positions, parties and candidates not listed. We encourage all voters to conduct their own research outside of our voter guide!

Remember, democracy thrives when all voices are heard. By participating in the electoral process, you are not only advocating for your own interests but also contributing to the collective well-being of society. Every vote counts, and your vote has the power to create meaningful change.

We hope that this voter guide serves as a valuable resource in helping you make decisions that align with your values and beliefs. Thank you for being an engaged citizen and for taking an active role in shaping the future of the community and our democracy.

Sinceramente,

Texas Turnout Rio Grande Valley
